Editor and camera operator with six years of freelance delivery for education and industrial clients, alongside three self-written short films and seven original audio dramas. Around 15 films a year for a single school client since 2020 — repeat work, fixed dates, no second take. I cut, grade and mix my own material, which is usually what a small team needs. Fluent English and Mandarin.

SELECTED EXPERIENCE

Freelance Camera Operator & Editor — Education sector

2020 – 2025

Five schools and nurseries, Baotou, China

- Around 15 films a year for one secondary school across six years of repeat commissions, working to the school calendar — graduation season in June and the start of term in September.
- Ceremonies and live events covered multi-camera with location sound, delivered to fixed dates that could not move.
- Music videos, promotional films and press-style interviews, including an interview with the city's top-scoring student on results day.
- Shot, cut, graded and mixed as a one-person crew on most jobs.

Freelance Camera Operator & Editor — Industrial client

2021 – present

Large industrial group, Inner Mongolia

- Three workplace safety and training films, plus annual multi-camera documentation of internal operational exercises.
- Live, unrepeatable events on restricted-access sites, shot to the client's access and safety requirements.
- Footage is under client confidentiality and cannot be shown. Details and references available on request.

Short-form Social Video — writer, editor, publisher

Ongoing

- Ran a short-form video account to a weekly publishing schedule, testing hooks, thumbnails and pacing against retention data. Best-performing piece reached 600,000 views.
